

Supplemental Aid Application

To be eligible for Supplemental Aid, you must have a current FAFSA on file with the University's Office of Admissions and Financial Aid.

Eligibility Requirements:

1. Not eligible for tuition remission.
2. Have FAFSA on file with the University's Office of Admissions and Financial Aid.
3. Must be registered for at least 6 credits for per term.
4. Must have a 2.0 GPA to be eligible (for current students or have incoming GPA over a 2.5)

Evaluation criteria will be based on financial need which will be determined by a student's Expected Family Contribution (EFC) from their FAFSA.

Note: Should you receive this scholarship and drop your courses, these funds will be returned to CGS.
